Patrol Outings

Bolt patrol met at the Metz's house and played video games. They also bowled at Bowl 32.

Ace patrol went to Tyler's house and had a Super Smash Bros competition and ate an entire box of Oreos in under five minutes.

Radioactive Gummy Ninjas patrol watched a movie, ate pizza, and had fun at William's house.

Thunderbird patrol went bowling at Bowl 32

Scout Sunday

With a new emphasis on more participation in the services, Troop 101 took part in all three morning worship services to commemorate "Scout Sunday 2019" on February 10th with our sponsoring church, the First United Methodist Church of Noblesville. Scouts took part by leading the Pledge of Allegiance, reading scripture, giving morning prayers, sharing Eagle Scout experiences, receiving the morning offerings, greeting worshippers and handing out bulletins, and simply being on hand to thank the church for their support of our Troop. The Religious Emblem Award was presented to Ben Enas, John Hunt, and Chris Saracionne...and Owen Vogelgesang was honored for his production of the Scout Video used in all three services. The church Pastors expressed their appreciation for the Troop, and their pleasure in being our chartering organization. Scout Sunday 2019 was a job well done! — Mr. Hibbard

Mayor's Breakfast

The 23rd Annual Mayor's Breakfast for Scouting was held on Tuesday, February 12th. The breakfast is a fundraiser that Mayor John Ditslear hosts for local Boy Scout programs. Ben Smith, Keegan Long and Hayden Smith were there to help greet the guests attending the Noblesville Mayor's Breakfast. Plus they opened the event with the presentation of the American Flag and the Pledge of Allegiance. During the event, Aidan Haney gave a speech about the valuable lessons he gained from being in Scouting and earning his Eagle. Also during the program, William Vowels presented the Mayor with a gift for his years of service to the city and support of the Scouting program. The gift was a shadow box with the Mayor's original scout uniform in it. And to top it off a future Troop 101 scout, Noah Baker had a question and answer session with the Mayor. We should all be very proud of how these boys represented Troop 101 and the scouting program. —Scoutmaster Smith

Amazing Race Campout

On the Amazing Race campout, our kids had a blast. We recreated the tv show, going across camp Belzer completing various challenges and competing with other groups in who could finish them all first. We split into several different teams composed out of scouts of all ages, including one team of just adults, and worked together using our brains and coordination with one another to complete the challenges. We also got to play games with one another after it was all said and done, and over all just had a good time with each other. I think one of my favorite things about this campout was seeing scouts of different ages who normally wouldn't talk to each other work together and become closer with one another. Overall, this was a really fun campout, and it was great to see everyone there having fun with me. — Billy Stansfield
